Civil Misc. Contempt Petition No. 51 of 2001

Hon'ble Irshad Hussain, J.

Heard Sri K.S. Verma learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Standing Counsel.

This contempt petition arising out of non-compliance of the directions as contained in the order of the court dated 9.12.1996, was moved in the year 2001 and from the counter affidavit and annexure CA 1, it is revealed that the matter was decided on merit by the District Magistrate, Haridwar. In the circumstances of the case, there does not arise any question of contempt. The contempt petition is dismissed and the notices are discharged.
